About Stepping Stone School

Stepping Stone School currently owns and operates 17 Child Development Centers in Central Texas, making it the largest privately owned early care and education provider in the Texas and the 23rd largest in the country. Still owned and operated by its original founders, long-time Austin residents Rhonda and Bill Paver, Stepping Stone School is considered an industry leader in early childhood development. During its 28 years of operation, Stepping Stone School has received numerous awards, including being recognized as "Best in Child Care" by the Austin Family Readers' Poll for nine years. Our well-trained, dedicated, professional educators teach using our proven, progressive curriculum to inspire creativity and growth in every child. At Stepping Stone School, we are committed to children, families, and our invaluable employees!
